Events<sup>[edit]</sup>

- December 31 - Philippine television marks the turning of the century in a big way as it heralds the dawn of the New Millennium.
  - PTV Network hosts the telecasts of the national millennium festivities held in the Rizal Park in Manila led by President Joseph Estrada.
  - GMA Network airs nationwide the national edition of the successful 2000 Today broadcast, with celebrations centering at the Makati Central Business District. At around 11:50pm, Regine Velasquez sang the Philippine Millennium theme song, "Written in the Sand", live at the top of The Peninsula Manila.
  - ABS-CBN hosts its own celebration coverage, focused not just on concerts of its big network talents in three venues: the Expo Pilipino Amphitheater in the Clark Freeport and Special Economic Zone in Pampanga, and within Metro Manila, the Quezon Memorial Circle (Quezon City), and The Fort in Bonifacio Global City (Taguig), but also on news reports of the celebrations from all over the country and the world as the new year and new century arrives. Within minutes to midnight, the network airs a special identity card marking the change to the new century with the introduction of its current logo, set to Ryan Cayabyab's music which the network would later adopt as the startup and closedown tune till the mid-2000s. The marathon telecast was originally the national edition of Millennium Live, which was cancelled days before due to lack of funding from most of the international TV networks that joined the project, but was finally pushed through as a series of international broadcasts by some of the partner channels.

television program services. Its full service digital broadcast teleport features server technology in Barangay Sta. Cruz, Sumulong Highway, Antipolo, Rizal. ### May<sup>[edit]</sup>

- May 6: Raymart Santiago, along with Claudine Barretto and his 8-man entourage, assaulted a known journalist and senior citizen, Ramon Tulfo, due to Ramon purportedly using his mobile phone to take photos of Claudine screaming at and humiliating a ground attendant of Cebu Pacific concerning missing luggage which supposedly contained asthma medicine for their friend's children. This occurred within NAIA Terminal 3 in a location not covered by CCTV.

Witnesses state that the brawl began when Raymart and his entourage surrounded Tulfo and demanded that he hand over his phone. Ramon refused and the assault commenced.

A video of the brawl that was recorded and posted on YouTube clearly shows Raymart choking Tulfo while encouraging his friends to throw punches at him. Claudine can clearly be seen attacking Tulfo as well. The airport guards eventually stopped the attack and escorts Ramon away while Raymart follows alongside screaming obscenities at him.

A few days after the incident, Claudine Barretto filed assault and child abuse charges on Ramon Tulfo as they claim that he (Tulfo) initiated the attack. Claudine also states that she has a witness to her claim. The name of the witness was not given and he has not given his account of the incident to anybody but Claudine. The rationale behind the child abuse charges, according to Claudine, comes from the fact(?) that Ramon (allegedly) begins the assault in front of her children, traumatizing them. Upon questioning the ground attendant Claudine was heckling, it was Raymart and their entourage who had initiated the assault.

In last night's episode, [Dingdong and Marian] DongYan's photo was edited and used again by the show. Were the photos of Dingdong, Marian and Zia used [and] edited without permission? Dear Ang Probinsyano, strike two na po kayo ah." which was quickly shared by other users and from which Dantes possibly gained knowledge of such usage. But whether or not it is done within the entertainment sector, we should always be reminded of the basic etiquette for online photo use and sharing that includes asking permission and/or citing sources. I do hope that this won't happen again to anyone." he wrote. In the same post, Dantes also shared an excerpt of his letter to the production team dated August 11, 2018 which read "I appreciate that you found artistic inspiration from the original photos. Unfortunately, there is the inescapable consequence that legal and moral rights were violated here. And as you may very well be aware of, established industry practice is against such act as it amounts to disrespect. Worst of all, as a father and husband, I cannot help but feel offended and deeply hurt by such actions, which happened not just once, but twice. Basic rules of courtesy in this case dictate that you first secure permission from the photographer and my Family."<sup>[10]</sup> On the following day, the production team of FPJ's Ang Probinsyano released a statement apologizing to Dantes and his family.<sup>[11]</sup> The statement explained that the production team hired a third-party contractor to create the props for the show, of which they were neither aware that the photograph belonged to Dantes nor was it intended to disrespect or offend Dantes and his family. ## February

- February 1 - Comedy Central (after past seven years of broadcasting in the Philippines) and MTV China has ceased its operations by ViacomCBS across Southeast Asia. Meanwhile, Paramount Channel Asia rebranded as Paramount Network Asia.
- February 4 - MediaQuest Holdings, through Signal TV announced a 3-year deal with the Premier Volleyball League to aired the games beginning with the 4th season (17th overall season for the former Shakey's V-League) on free-to-air network One Sports and on the cable and satellite channel One Sports+. This is the second league organized by Sports Vision to broadcast on Signal and One Sports (the first one being Spikers' Turf since 2018). This is also the third time that the volleyball league games broadcast on the company since 2005-2006 on ABC-5 (now TV5; under Associated Broadcasting Company, now TV5 Network, Inc.) and 2012-2013 on Hyper (now One Sports+; under MediaQuest) both as the Shakey's V-League, and marked the end of its stint with ABS-CBN Corporation following the non-renewal of its congressional franchise on July 10, 2020 and the dissolution of ABS-CBN Sports division to close its business operations on August 31, 2020 during the COVID-19 pandemic in the Philippines.<sup>[6]</sup>
- February 6 - JM Yosures of Taguig City, Metro Manila was hailed as Tawag ng Tanghalan Year 4 Grand Champion on It's Showtime.
- February 7 - GMA Network launched "GMA Now", a digital TV dongle for Android smartphones.<sup>[7][8][9]</sup>
- February 10 - G Sat terminated four Mediahouse/Club TV and SES pay TV channels: GINX Esports TV, Health & Wellness, Luxe & Life and Pet & Pal, as well as Amazing Discoveries TV, Sonlife Broadcasting Network, Stingray Classica and Fight COVID-19 (information channel) on its line-up due to revamping of their channel assignments. Meanwhile, two Mediahouse/Club TV and SES channels: Motorvision TV and My Cinema Europe, continued to air on their line-up. In addition, G Sat launched eight pay TV channels on their line-up: Da Vinci Kids, DreamWorks Channel, Myx, Paramount Network, TAP Edge, TAP Sports, TAP TV and Travel Channel, as well as two returned pay TV channels: Aniplus and K-Plus.
- February 14 - My Only Radio relaunched as "MOR Entertainment", transitioned to a new media (online) entity network from a broadcast terrestrial radio network via multiple digital platforms on Facebook, iWantTFC, Kumu, Spotify and YouTube.<sup>[10][11]</sup>
- February 20 - Sky Cable terminated Life TV on its line-up due to the expiration of Sky's contract with the network. Meanwhile, the network continued to air via BEAM TV.<sup>[12]</sup>

- February 22 - GMA News TV (just six days before the network's 10th year anniversary on Philippine television) rebranded to GTV, a secondary channel for news, entertainment and sports content in lieu with their parent network. Prior to the rebranding announcement on February 9 by GMA Network, Inc., GMA News TV had been increasing generalist content (similar to the former Citynet Television and Q) since September 2020 where news and public affairs content were decreasing as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. GTV's programming include the upcoming NCAA Philippines (where GMA Network signed a 5-year deal with the league on November 21, 2020, which led the reason behind the network's rebranding)<sup>[13]</sup> and GMA News TV's current and existing programming such as weekly public affairs series and newscasts (including Balitanghali, State of the Nation, GMA Regional TV Weekend News (later dropped the "GMA" moniker as Regional TV Weekend News), GMA Regional TV Strip (later dropped the "GMA" moniker as Regional TV Strip), Dobol B sa News TV (later renamed as Dobol B TV), News TV Live and the weekday simulcast of 24 Oras), along with movie blocks, Asianovelas and animated series. Following the rebranding of the domestic network to its current name, the News TV brand continued to use through its international version.<sup>[14][15][16]</sup>

Television talk, reality, variety and game shows in the Philippines temporarily filmed without a live audience. TAPE Inc. announced on March 9 that it would stop admitting live audiences for their variety show Eat Bulaga!, which airs on GMA Network; ABS-CBN followed suit, announcing on March 10 that they would do the same for their television shows including It's Showtime, Banana Sundae, Magandang Buhay, the second season of the Philippine version of I Can See Your Voice and ASAP. GMA Network then followed suit again with Wowowin (including its Saturday primetime edition), All-Out Sundays, Centerstage, The Boobay and Tekla Show, Mars Pa More and GMA News TV's Idol sa Kusina and Tonight with Arnold Clavio.<sup>[36][37]</sup>

On March 14, 2020, ABS-CBN and GMA Network both announced that they will suspend production on its drama and live entertainment shows effective March 15 (the same day an quarantine declared by President Rodrigo Duterte enacted in Metro Manila and Cainta, Rizal).<sup>[38][39][40]</sup> Hence, ABS-CBN would air its previously aired shows temporarily in place for primetime viewing: 100 Days to Heaven, May Bukas Pa and On the Wings of Love. Additionally, the network gave its iWant TV series I Am U on its television debut. With more classic shows announced to air in a coming weeks, Walang Hanggan, The Legal Wife and Got to Believe for the afternoon programming, additionally, Wildflower, Tubig at Langis and the 2018 remake of the Chinese version of Meteor Garden on the primetime block. GMA Network followed suit with Ika-6 na Utos, Encantadia, Kambal, Karibal, My Husband's Lover, Alyas Robin Hood and Onanay.<sup>[41][42][43]</sup>

On March 18, 2020, GMA News TV and CNN Philippines announced that they will temporarily go off-air beginning March 19, with the latter going off as the Worldwide Corporate Center in Mandaluyong, where their newsroom and studios are based, is being disinfected after a confirmed case in the offices of one of the building's tenants.<sup>[44][45]</sup> The two networks eventually returned on March 20 and 23 respectively, with GMA News TV making way for a temporary full-time video simulcast of DZBB-AM and its studio programming.<sup>[46]</sup>

In an unrelated matter, ABS-CBN's broadcast licence was not renewed by its expiry date by Congress, and the company's free television and radio stations were hence forced off the air by the National Telecommunications Commission on May 5, 2020, to much domestic controversy; the licence revocation is believed to involve the network's critical news coverage of President Duterte's administration, along with overall inaction from the Congress of the Philippines to renew their broadcast licence since the matter came up in 2016.<sup>[47][48]</sup> Although the reason for the closure is not directly due to COVID-19, some figures have expressed concern about its impact on public efforts to contain the pandemic. In a statement, ABS-CBN management said that "Millions of Filipinos will lose their source of news and entertainment when ABS-CBN is ordered to go off-air on TV and radio tonight (5 May 2020) when people need crucial and timely information as the nation deals with the COVID-19 pandemic".<sup>[49]</sup>

Furthermore, Albay Representative Joey Salceda warned that the network's shutdown could add up to 2,600 COVID-19 cases, as many viewers would lose a vital source of information on how to keep themselves safe during the pandemic.<sup>[50]</sup> Vice President Leni Robredo (who does not share Duterte's party affiliation) questioned the move as she believes the network's operations have helped in efforts to contain COVID-19 more than the country's offshore gaming operations, and added that the shutdown could "cost lives on top of the thousands who will lose their jobs".<sup>[51]</sup> The company's premium network ABS-CBN News Channel is unaffected as a cable-only network, continuing to provide full news updates, along with ABS-CBN's social media accounts and YouTube channels, and its international networks, including The Filipino Channel. On May 8, 2020, the newscast of the network's flagship news programme, TV Patrol began to broadcast on ABS-CBN TV Plus channels TeleRadyo and Cine Mo!.<sup>[52]</sup>

Pantawid ng Pag-ibig: At Home Together Concert was a benefit concert, broadcast on March 22.<sup>[53][54]</sup>

Outcome	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• ABS-CBN broadcast franchise expired on May</li> </ul>

4, 2020, with its new franchise being tackled by Congress since May 26

- National Telecommunications Commission issued a cease and desist order on ABS-CBN, effectively ceasing broadcast operations on May 5
- ABS-CBN Corporation filed petitions before the Supreme Court of the Philippines on May 7, seeking to nullify the NTC's cease and desist order
- National Telecommunications Commission and Solicitor General Jose Calida issued two alias cease and desist orders on ABS-CBN TV Plus and Sky Direct, effectively ceasing operations on June 30
- The House of Representatives, particularly the Committee on Legislative Franchises, voted 70-11 to deny the franchise application of ABS-CBN. <sup>[5][1]</sup>

The ABS-CBN franchise renewal controversy is a national dispute in the Philippines regarding the renewal of the congressional franchise that would have allowed Philippine media network ABS-CBN continued broadcasting rights in the Philippines. <sup>[6][7][8]</sup>

Disputes between the government of President Rodrigo Duterte and ABS-CBN arose on the terms and conditions of the franchise renewal agreement. Amid the controversy, the Congress of the Philippines, the legislature of the country, was unable to renew the franchise before its expiration date. The congressional franchise expired on May 4, 2020, as the Philippines was dealing with the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic.<sup>[9]</sup> The next day, exercising constitutional powers, the National Telecommunications Commission (NTC) then issued a cease-and-desist order demanding ABS-CBN immediately cease all broadcasting. ABS-CBN complied with the government order and signed-off its television channels later that day.<sup>[6]</sup> On June 30, 2020, the NTC and Solicitor General Jose Calida released two alias cease-and-desist orders against ABS-CBN TV Plus and Sky Direct.<sup>[10]</sup>

Beginning in 2014, the network had repeatedly applied for the renewal of their broadcast franchise through private bills that had been pending in the House of Representatives but had not been addressed by the 16th, 17th, and 18th congresses of the Philippines.<sup>[6][7][11]</sup> Prominent figures in ABS-CBN Corporation, the political opposition in the Philippines, media advocacy groups,<sup>[7]</sup> and the international press<sup>[6][9]</sup> have labeled the refusal of Congress to renew the franchise as a result of President Duterte's pressure for ABS-CBN to cease broadcasting, and a direct attack on the country's democracy and press freedoms. Duterte's ruling coalition maintains a supermajority in both chambers of Congress,<sup>[12][13]</sup> and the President has criticized the ABS-CBN Network for their alleged biased and unfavorable news coverage against Duterte beginning with his presidential campaign in the 2016 Philippine presidential election,<sup>[14]</sup> repeatedly voicing his opposition against the renewal of the network's congressional franchise.<sup>[15]</sup> ABS-CBN has subsequently appealed to the Supreme Court of the Philippines to nullify as unconstitutional the cease-and-desist order.

The resulting franchise expiration and withdrawal of its broadcast rights marked the first time ABS-CBN, considered a historical and cultural icon in the Philippines, had been off the air since the 1986 revolution, having been seized and liquidated by the authoritarian government of the Martial Law dictatorship from 1972 until the regime's collapse in 1986.<sup>[6]</sup> Critics of the Duterte government consider the NTC's cease-and-desist order and the denial of the franchise application as contributing to a growing democratic backsliding in the Philippines under the Duterte administration.<sup>[16]</sup>

Background

Congressional franchise to operate television and radio stations

As prescribed by the American Insular government-era Act No. 3846, or the Radio Control Act, which became effective in 1931 (later amended in 1963), broadcasting networks require a congressional franchise to operate television and radio stations, which usually last for up to 25 years.<sup>[17]</sup> ABS-CBN, which had been operating since June 13, 1946, and made its first television broadcast on October 23, 1953, had last been granted a 25-year franchise extension on March 30, 1995 by virtue of Republic Act No. 7966 (but later implemented on May 4, 1995). This expired on May 4, 2020, as upheld by the Department of Justice (DOJ).<sup>[18]</sup>

Press freedom and democracy issues

The Philippines is touted to have the "freest and liveliest press" in Asia,<sup>[19][20][21]</sup> where media is considered a watchdog<sup>[22]</sup> and a "fourth estate" helping to maintain the checks and balances of democratic governance.<sup>[23][24]</sup>

Despite this, the country is consistently ranked as one of the world's most dangerous countries for journalists.<sup>[25][26][27]</sup> In May 2020, it slipped two spots down to 136th place (out of 180 countries) in the World Press Freedom Index.<sup>[28]</sup>

Media watchdogs such as Reporters Without Borders,<sup>[29]</sup> the Center for Media Freedom and Responsibility,<sup>[30]</sup> Amnesty International,<sup>[31]</sup> the Photojournalists' Center of the Philippines (PCP), Foreign Correspondents Association of the Philippines (FOCAP), and the Consortium on Democracy and Disinformation (D&D)<sup>[32]</sup> have noted that various forms of attacks against the press have increased since the Duterte administration came to power in 2016 – with the Philippine Daily Inquirer, news website Rappler, nonprofit media organizations like Vera Files and the Philippine Center for Investigative Journalism, and ABS-CBN being particular targets because of coverage critical of the administration.<sup>[32][25][33]</sup>

Many of these media watchdogs<sup>[32]</sup> have issued statements placing the ABS-CBN broadcast stoppage in the context of systemic attacks against press freedom in the Philippines.<sup>[32][33]</sup> The shutdown order was denounced by media groups and people's organizations for being a loss of democracy, freedom of expression, and freedom of the press.<sup>[34][35][36]</sup> Some groups also placed the matter in the context of attacks and harassment aimed at those that criticize the government.<sup>[37][38]</sup>

ABS-CBN market share

The ABS-CBN broadcast network is acknowledged to be one of the Philippines' oldest and most influential media networks, run by the Lopez family.<sup>[8]</sup> The company generates about 50 to 60 percent of the group's total annual revenue mainly from selling airtime of its television and radio properties to advertisers. The remaining revenue is generated from consumer sales through distribution of cable and international channels, as well as operations of over-the-top platform services, and a family entertainment center in Taguig. According to the Philippine Competition Commission, ABS-CBN Corporation controlled "somewhere between 31% and 44%" of the Philippines' total television market as of 2020.<sup>[38]</sup>

Prior broadcast stoppage under Ferdinand Marcos

Main article: Martial law under Ferdinand Marcos

Prior to the 2020 stoppage, ABS-CBN had been closed down on September 23, 1972, when martial law under Ferdinand Marcos was announced and the station's television and radio stations were sequestered.<sup>[39][40]</sup> This stoppage lasted until July 1986, when the sequestered stations were recovered and the frequencies returned to ABS-CBN.

During that 14-year period, use of the corporation's frequencies (except DZXL-AM 620, awarded to KBS/RPN as DWWW and DZXL-TV 4, awarded to the government-owned National Media Production Center for the launch of Government Television as DWGT-TV in 1974) was awarded to the Banahaw Broadcasting Corporation (BBC) owned by Marcos crony and sugar plantation owner Roberto Benedicto and was launched on November 4, 1973. Under martial law, BBC formed a de facto media monopoly with Kanlaon Broadcasting System/Radio Philippines Network (KBS/RPN), Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC, acquired in 1975), and government-owned Government Television/Maharlika Broadcasting System (GTV/MBS). The company's headquarters, the ABS-CBN Broadcasting Center, was also sequestered without compensation from the network's owners and was renamed as Broadcast Plaza to serve as headquarters of BBC, KBS/RPN, GTV/MBS and, from 1980, the Bureau of Broadcasts (BB).<sup>[40][41]</sup>

Marcos was eventually deposed by the People Power Revolution of February 1986. The newly-created revolutionary government agency Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG) sequestered and later dissolved BBC, and returned the frequencies to ABS-CBN in July 1986, eventually resuming broadcast on September 16, 1986.<sup>[42][43]</sup>

Early renewal initiatives during the 16th Congress

See also: 16th Congress of the Philippines

In 2014 and 2015, ABS-CBN requested the 16th Congress to tackle the extension of its franchise early, despite the fact that its renewal was not due until six years later, in 2020.<sup>[7]</sup>

Media sources in the legislature indicated that the network's 2016 initiative was the result of having been "particularly singled out" by supporters of President-elect Rodrigo Duterte because of the perception that they "consistently showed him in a negative light".<sup>[7]</sup> The Philippine Daily Inquirer reported that a member of the House legislative franchise committee said ABS-CBN "did not want to risk going through the renewal under an 'unfriendly' administration."<sup>[99]</sup>

The Inquirer's source also said that the initiative "lacked support from President Benigno Aquino III's allies in the House" because they felt that ABS-CBN's criticisms against Aquino were "too personal and offensive and went to the point of nitpicking."<sup>[99][7]</sup>

ABS-CBN eventually had to withdraw these franchise renewal initiatives due to time constraints.<sup>[7]</sup>

Ad controversies during the 2016 Philippine presidential campaign

Philippine President Rodrigo Duterte has attributed his objection to the franchise renewal of ABS-CBN to an election ad controversy during the campaign leading up to the 2016 Philippine presidential election. He said the network refused to air his 2016 presidential campaign ads and favored the negative political ads paid by then-vice presidential candidate Antonio Trillanes critical of his remarks on the campaign trail.<sup>[100][101]</sup>

On February 24, 2020, the network's president and chief executive officer Carlo Katigbak has apologized to President Duterte for not airing his political advertisements during his 2016 polls. President Duterte has accepted the apology, leaving the franchise's renewal to the Congress.<sup>[102]</sup><sup>[103]</sup> ABS-CBN also offered to return the money spent for these advertisements, which Duterte declined, stating that the money should be donated to a charity instead.<sup>[102]</sup>

Meanwhile, Commission on Elections spokesperson James Jimenez defended the controversial ad as being well within Election Law, under "Partisan Political Activity."<sup>[104][105]</sup>

Renewal initiatives during the 17th and 18th Congress

Non-renewal assertions by Duterte

Throughout his term, which coincides with the 17th and 18th Congress, President Duterte publicly reiterated that he will oppose the franchise renewal of ABS-CBN.<sup>[15][52]</sup>

Opposition lawmakers as well as labor groups objected to Duterte's stand on ABS-CBN as the franchise non-renewal will compromise the employees of the network; stating that the blocking of the franchise renewal had no merit.<sup>[106]</sup> Opposition groups have stated their opinions that the non-renewal of the franchise violates press freedom.<sup>[32]</sup>

The President later changed his stance after the network's apology, stating that he will not interfere with the franchise renewal in the Congress. However, the President did not say whether he will veto the bill or not.<sup>[102][103]</sup>

17th Congress

In November 2016, Nueva Ecija Representative Micaela Violago filed House Bill 4349 in the 17th Congress to renew the network's franchise.<sup>[107][108]</sup> The 17th Congress adjourned sine die with the bill never getting out of committee.<sup>[109]</sup>

Deliberations during the 18th Congress

During the 18th Congress of the Philippines, at least 12 house representatives and 2 senators filed their own versions for a new franchise of the network. House Speaker Alan Peter Cayetano made assurances that the Congress will tackle the franchise with fairness.<sup>[110]</sup>

SB 1403	Ramon "Bong" Revilla Jr.	March 5, 2020	<sup>[84]</sup>

On January 6, 2020, Albay representative Edcel Lagman filed House Resolution 639, urging the House Committee on Legislative Franchises for its immediate action on the several bills lodged to the committee.<sup>[67]</sup> At least 91 other representatives signed the resolution.<sup>[68]</sup>

On February 24, 2020, the Congress finally made its decision to tackle their franchise renewal.<sup>[111]</sup> During a Senate hearing on the same day, public services panel chair Grace Poe stated they were to tackle ABS-CBN's compliance with the terms and conditions of its franchise.<sup>[112]</sup> The conclusion was that there was no breach of laws or franchise terms. The following is a summary of the findings:

1. The Bureau of Internal Revenue stated that ABS-CBN had fully complied with the tax requirements of the government. Sir Cabantac Jr., BIR Large Taxpayers Service head stated that the company had paid P14.298 billion from 2016 to 2019. In 2019, ABS-CBN also settled P152.44 million in tax payments with the BIR.<sup>[113]</sup>
2. The Department of Labor and Employment cleared the media giant for its compliance with general labor standards, occupational safety and health, and security of tenure. Former ABS-CBN corporate services head Mark Nepomuceno said they also have contributed to mandatory employee benefits such as SSS, Phil-Health, PAG-IBIG. He also stated that ABS-CBN was no longer practicing end-of-contract scheme, as well as giving benefits to independent contributors varying per contract negotiation<sup>[113]</sup>
3. Telecommunications Commissioner General Gamaliel Cordoba stated that franchise laws cover "commercial purposes", including pay-per-view service. Section 1 of Republic Act 7908, which allows ABS-CBN Convergence's broadcast operations, states that: "It is hereby granted a franchise to construct, operate, and maintain, for commercial purposes." Even though ABS-CBN introduced the service without NTC guidelines yet, the fine for such violation is a measly P200. Senate President Recto stated that the NTC can just impose a fine on ABS-CBN rather than shutdown.<sup>[113]</sup>
4. Securities and Exchange Commission Commissioner Ephyro Amatong clarified that a legal interpretation from 1999 stated that Philippine Depository Receipts were not equivalent to certificates of ownership, which may have evolved in recent years. Senator Poe pointed out that companies should be notified of any changes in the legal interpretation of the investment instrument, as all media companies have to be 100% Filipino-owned. Issuing PDRs is a common practice among Philippine media outfits—including Rappler and GMA. The SEC has not yet conducted a review whether there are violations in ABS-CBN's PDRs, with Amatong saying he "would rather not make a categorical statement at this time" as to whether there are violations in ABS-CBN's PDRs, given the pending case at the Supreme Court, as of May 6, 2020.<sup>[113]</sup>

Quo warranto petition

On February 10, 2020, Solicitor General of the Philippines Jose Calida filed a quo warranto petition before the Supreme Court of the Philippines seeking to revoke ABS-CBN's franchise and that of its subsidiary ABS-CBN Convergence over alleged breaches of its franchise, including operating its pay-per-view service Kapamilya Box Office (KBO) and constitutional restriction on foreign ownership of mass media.<sup>[114]</sup> The network responded to disprove the allegations leveled against it.<sup>[115]</sup>

Within the same month, various congressmen urged the National Telecommunications Commission (NTC) to grant a provisional authority to ABS-CBN to continue operations after the lapse of its current franchise until Congress has made a decision on its franchise application.<sup>[116]</sup> Having consulted with the Department of Justice (DOJ), the NTC affirmed in March 2020 that it would "likely" issue a provisional authority to ABS-CBN and "let ABS-CBN continue operations based on equity".<sup>[117]</sup> However, the Federation of International Cable TV and Telecommunications Associations of the Philippines (FICTAP) questioned the provisional authority, stating that it would be unconstitutional.<sup>[118]</sup>

On June 23, 2020, the Supreme Court of the Philippines dismissed the quo warranto petition to revoke ABS-CBN Corporation's franchise, stating that the petition was moot and academic as the franchise already expired, therefore the Court would not be changing anything by voiding the franchise ab initio.<sup>[119]</sup> However, the quo warranto petition filed against ABS-CBN Convergence Inc. for allegedly illegally operating KBO<sup>10</sup> remains pending.<sup>[120]</sup>

Planned provisional authority cancellation

On March 5, 2020, lawyer, Larry Gadon filed a petition for prohibition before the Supreme Court of the Philippines, seeking to stop Telecommunications Commissioner Gamaliel Cordoba, House Speaker Alan Peter Cayetano and House Committee on Legislative Franchises Chairman Franz Alvarez from issuing ABS-CBN's provisional authority, saying the provisional authority to operate violates the doctrine of separation of powers.<sup>[121]</sup>

16 days after the shutdown, Gadon announces that he is withdrawing the petition which he filed, seeking to stop Cordoba, Cayetano and Alvarez from issuing provisional authority, stating that was rendered moot and the act sought to be prevented no longer exists.<sup>[122]</sup>

On June 2, 2020, the Supreme Court of the Philippines has dismissed the petition for prohibition against Telecommunications Commissioner Gamaliel Cordoba, House Speaker Alan Peter Cayetano and House Committee on Legislative Franchises Chairman Franz Alvarez from issuing provisional authority, stating that the court does not deem it efficient.<sup>[123]</sup>

May 2020 broadcast stoppage

The sign-off message broadcast by DWWX-TV (ABS-CBN Manila) before stopping all broadcasts at 7:52 pm (PST) in compliance with the NTC order

On May 3, 2020, Calida warned the NTC against granting the provisional authority to ABS-CBN, citing a Supreme Court decision in 2014, stating that provisional authority can only be granted after the franchise is secured in the Congress.<sup>[116][114]</sup> In the same statement, Calida cautioned that the agency would put itself at risk of prosecution under the Anti-Graft and Corrupt Practices Act should they issue the provisional authority without a legal franchise being held by ABS-CBN's operating companies, and that a 1991 DOJ opinion stating the NTC may issue provisional authority without a legal franchise was overturned by the Supreme Court.<sup>[114]</sup>

On May 5, 2020, Philippine House Committee on Legislative Franchises Chairman Franz Alvarez warns the NTC from backtracking, if they did, the NTC can be held in contempt for refusal to issue a provisional authority to ABS-CBN.<sup>[124]</sup> Six days ago, the House Committee on Legislative Franchises has issued a show cause order against NTC Commissioner Gamaliel Cordoba, Deputy Commissioners Edgardo Cabarios, Delilah Deles and Legal Branch Head Ella Blanca Lopez to explain why should not be cited in contempt for issuing the cease and desist order against ABS-CBN.<sup>[125]</sup> Three days ago, the NTC has responded to the show cause order, stating that was legally bounded and apologized to the House of Representatives for failing to notify on ABS-CBN shutdown.<sup>[126]</sup>

On the same day, NTC issued a cease and desist order to immediately close its broadcasting operations, including its radio stations DZMM, S+A and MOR, following the expiration of its broadcast franchise the day before.<sup>[127][128][129][6][130][9][excessive citations]</sup> The cease and desist order covers 42 television stations operated by ABS-CBN across the country, including the main ABS-CBN Network, ABS-CBN Sports and Action, ten digital broadcast channels, 18 FM stations, and five AM stations. However, ABS-CBN News Channel (ANC), The Filipino Channel (TFC), TeleRadyo and its sister cable channels (run by subsidiary Creative Programs), as well as its online properties, and production companies Star Music and Star Cinema, were allowed to continue as their operations are not contingent on the legislative franchise.<sup>[131]</sup>

The network signed off the air at 7:52 pm (PST) following the news program TV Patrol. ABS-CBN executives Carlo Katigbak and Mark Lopez aired statements on the program appealing the NTC's cease and desist order.<sup>[132][133]</sup> The newscast was also simulcast on DZMM, S+A and MOR stations.<sup>[134]</sup> DZMM radio and television counterpart signed off at 8:20 pm, following SRO: Suhestyon.. Reaksyon at Opinyon and rebranded simply as TeleRadyo following the newscast and the digital television networks available on ABS-CBN TV Plus including Asianovela Channel, Movie Central and the terrestrial operations of Jeepney TV, Myx, O Shopping and Knowledge Channel also signed-off. Cine Mo!, Yey! and KBO remains unaffected (during TV premiere of The Mall, The Merrier on KBO channel from May 1-6, 2020) after the cease and desist order.

Along with the order, NTC gave ABS-CBN 10 days to explain why its assigned frequencies should not be recalled.<sup>[135]</sup> In response on May 15, 2020, ABS-CBN reasoned that "it would be detrimental to the public interest as it would hamper the ability of ABS-CBN to immediately resume serving the public through its broadcasts, once the franchise is granted".<sup>[136]</sup> Additionally, House Bill 6732 was proposed by House Speaker Alan Peter Cayetano on May 13, 2020, which would have granted the network a provisional franchise to operate until October 31, 2020.<sup>[136][137]</sup> Subsequently, on May 27, 2020, NTC was told to refrain from carrying out the recall while the Congress deliberates on the measures to grant provisional franchise and a fresh franchise.<sup>[138]</sup>

Post-shutdown operations

Network programming and legal action

On May 7, 2020, ABS-CBN's news programs TV Patrol and Umagang Kay Ganda resumed broadcast on ABS-CBN News Channel, as it simulcast the program from the main network since March due to the COVID-19 pandemic programming changes.<sup>[139]</sup> It was also simulcast on its news website, its Facebook and YouTube pages, as well as on The Filipino Channel to viewers outside the country. On May 8, 2020, the following day TV Patrol began airing on Cine Mo! and returned on TeleRadyo.<sup>[140]</sup>

ABS-CBN Corporation filed a petition for certiorari and prohibition as well as temporary restraining order (TRO) to the Supreme Court of the Philippines, seeking to nullify the NTC's cease and desist order on May 7, 2020.<sup>[141]</sup> (See § ABS-CBN Corporation v. National Telecommunications Commission below.) The Senate and the House of the Representatives filed respective bills urging NTC to reconsider its order, as well as to abolish the agency itself.<sup>[142][143]</sup>

On May 8, 2020, DZMM TeleRadyo, now rebranded as simply TeleRadyo, resumed its regular programming airing the usual DZMM programming format.<sup>[144]</sup> TeleRadyo is carried through ABS-CBN TV Plus, making it one of three exclusive channels (the others being Cine Mo! and Yey!) that remain operational on digital free-to-air television after the NTC's order takes effect.<sup>[144]</sup> ABS-CBN later clarified in a statement that the three channels, along with Kapamilya Box Office channel, continued broadcasting and received in Metro Manila, Laguna province, Iloilo province, and selected areas of Baguio through a blocktime agreement with AMCARE Broadcasting Network (former owner of Studio 23 from its 1996 launch until ABS-CBN acquired a stake in AMCARE in 2010) owned by the Carandang family. On the same day, MOR Philippines also resumed its online and cable operations through a national programming service set up by the network's flagship station in Metro Manila.<sup>[145]</sup>

On May 11, 2020, House Representatives Paolo Duterte, Eric Go Yap, and Abraham Tolentino filed House Resolution No. 853, seeking to probe into the corporation's possible violation of its franchise.<sup>[146][147][148]</sup>

On June 1, 2020, Jeepney TV and Asianovela Channel resumed broadcasting on ABS-CBN TV Plus as temporary channel replacements for ABS-CBN and S+A, but both channels are still on free trial.<sup>[149]</sup>

On June 4, 2020, ABS-CBN announced on TV Patrol that a cable-and-satellite channel named Kapamilya Channel will launch on June 13, resuming the productions of ABS-CBN's dramas and live entertainment shows and airing its entertainment, educational and current affairs programming, along with temporary movie blocks.<sup>[150]</sup> However, the dramas Make It With You and Pamilya Ko confirmed their cancellations and failed to complete its stories because of the network's temporary suspension of production of entertainment programs during the enhanced community quarantine in Luzon caused by the COVID-19 pandemic.<sup>[151][152]</sup> Comedy gag show Banana Sundae would also not return to air.<sup>[153]</sup>

On June 30, 2020, the NTC and Solicitor General Jose Calida issued an alias cease-and-desist order demanding ABS-CBN TV Plus to further stop broadcasting all of its digital free-to-air channels on UHF Channel 43 in Metro Manila and some provinces.<sup>[10]</sup>

The Supreme Court initially set the date of tackling ABS-CBN's petition for a TRO on July 13,<sup>[154]</sup> however, it was moved to August 4.

Congressional hearings for a new franchise

On May 13, 2020, House Bill 6732 proposed by House Speaker Alan Peter Cayetano, which grants the network a provisional franchise to operate until October 31, 2020 "unless sooner revoked or cancelled", was approved by the House of Representatives convening as a Committee of the Whole. The said bill was awaiting for a third and final reading after which it would have been transmitted to the Senate;<sup>[137][155]</sup> but on May 19, 2020, the proposal was withdrawn with the chamber opting to go straight to hearing measures seeking to grant the media giant a fresh 25-year franchise.<sup>[156]</sup>

- The first day of hearings was held on May 26, under the auspices of the Joint Committee for Legislative Franchises, Good Governance and Public Accountability, where ABS-CBN President and CEO Carlo Katigbak and Deputy Speaker Rodante Marcoleta gave their respective side's opening statements.<sup>[157]</sup>
- The second day, held on June 1, tackled the media conglomerate's ownership concerns.<sup>[158]</sup>
- The third day was held on June 3, mainly focused on Eugenio Lopez III's citizenship.<sup>[159]</sup>
- The fourth hearing was held on June 8, which also focused on Lopez III's citizenship.<sup>[160]</sup> These first days of the hearings focused on Eugenio Lopez III dual citizenship status being a Filipino and an American citizen at the same time.
- The fifth hearing was held on June 11, which tackled the legalities of ABS-CBN's issuance of PDRs or Philippine Depositary Receipts.<sup>[161]</sup> During the course of the hearing, the PDRs were determined to be legal but this has raised questions to the real motives of the financial instrument.

- The sixth hearing was held on June 15, tackled the media conglomerate's closure during Marcos regime and return to the Lopez family after the People Power Revolution in 1986. <sup>[162]</sup> Questions on the return to the Lopez family were raised in particular to the arbitrary procedure and the settlement agreement that were agreed upon.
- The seventh hearing was held on June 17, which was attended by former Senate President Juan Ponce Enrile, tackled the constitutional 50-year limit on congressional franchises and airing of a program on ABS-CBN Davao hosted by Duterte called Gikan sa Masa, Para sa Masa. <sup>[163]</sup>
- The eighth hearing was held on June 29, tackled the network's blocktime agreement with AMCARA Broadcasting Network for continue airing the network's programs on free-to-air digital television through DWBM-TV (UHF Channel 43) in ABS-CBN TV Plus set-top box in Metro Manila, Laguna, selected areas of Baguio and Iloilo. <sup>[164]</sup> During the hearings, questions were raised both to AMCARA and ABS-CBN on the seemingly long term block time arrangements.
- The ninth hearing was held on June 30, tackled the media conglomerate's labor issues. <sup>[165]</sup> Questions were raised on program-based contracts and independent contractors which are prevalent in most broadcasting companies. <sup>[166]</sup>
- The tenth hearing was held on July 1, tackled the media conglomerate's tax delinquencies. <sup>[citation needed]</sup> Questions were raised regarding the actual tax payments of ABS-CBN pointing out to government tax incentives that were availed. <sup>[citation needed]</sup>
- The eleventh hearing was held on July 2, continuing the issues on taxes and labor practices. <sup>[citation needed]</sup>
- The twelfth hearing was held on July 6, tackling allegations of biased reporting from the network and its coverage of the 2016 general election, and also tackled issues regarding bias and morality on some past ABS-CBN news and programs. <sup>[citation needed]</sup>
- A summation of arguments was held on July 9, with Representatives Carlos Zarate and Rodante Marcoleta respectively delivering the closing arguments for, and against the renewal. <sup>[citation needed]</sup>
- On July 10, members of the House of Representatives, particularly the Committee on Legislative Franchises, voted 70–11 to deny the franchise application of ABS-CBN, citing several issues on the network's franchise. <sup>[5][1]</sup>

Is the ABS-CBN broadcast stoppage of "transcendental" constitutional importance? If so, was the NTC's CDO legal?

ABS-CBN Corporation v. National Telecommunications Commission (G.R. No. 252119) is a pending case before the Supreme Court of the Philippines. On May 7, 2020, ABS-CBN filed a petition for certiorari and prohibition asking the Court to issue a temporary restraining order (TRO) against the implementation of the National Telecommunications Commission's cease and desist order.<sup>[170]</sup> If granted, this TRO would allow them to operate until the case is decided.<sup>[172]</sup> However, some lawyers have questioned the legal merits of the petition,<sup>[171][173]</sup> as it was filed right to the Supreme Court, even before a motion for reconsideration before the NTC or a case in the Court of Appeals.<sup>[174]</sup> In the petition, ABS-CBN argues that it is proper to have filed first in the Supreme Court, as the case in their view involves "genuine issues of constitutionality that must be addressed at the most immediate time"<sup>[170]:17</sup> and that their petition is of "transcendental importance".<sup>[170]:18</sup> On May 18, Larry Gadon filed a motion for consolidation against the ABS-CBN's temporary restraining order, stating that it violates the hierarchy of the courts and the case must be filed at the CA.<sup>[174]</sup> The following day, the Court accepted the case, ordered the NTC to reply, and impleaded both the House and Senate and dismissing Gadon's plea for a consolidation.<sup>[175]</sup> The NTC filed its required comment on May 26.<sup>[176]</sup>

The Supreme Court set a further hearing for July 13 on the merits of the petition, though there may not be a ruling on that date.<sup>[177]</sup> However, the hearing was rescheduled to August 4, 2020.<sup>[178]</sup>

Reactions and impact

Prior to broadcast stoppage

Before the expiration of the broadcast franchise, ABS-CBN talents and employees conducted weekly demonstrations in front of its headquarters in Quezon City as well as in its regional stations from January to February 2020.<sup>[179][180]</sup> During these demonstrations, presidential daughter and incumbent Davao City Mayor Sara Duterte-Carpio expressed support for the franchise renewal.<sup>[181]</sup>

After the broadcast stoppage

Supporters of ABS-CBN staging a rally outside the ABS-CBN Broadcasting Center on the night of June 3, 2020

The NTC's cease and desist order on ABS-CBN was met by widespread criticism by the Kapisanan ng mga Brodkaster ng Pilipinas (KBP) (in which the network is one of its members),<sup>[182]</sup> as well as various advocacy groups,<sup>[183][184]</sup> business organizations,<sup>[185][186]</sup> the local Catholic church,<sup>[187][188][189]</sup> and even some members of the Congress. Several journalists and celebrities from the network and its rival GMA Network expressed solidarity with ABS-CBN after it was ordered to cease its radio and TV broadcast.<sup>[190][191]</sup> The hashtag #NoToABSCBNShutDown topped the local and worldwide Twitter trending lists the same day.<sup>[192]</sup>

Within a day, numerous colleges and universities in the Philippines, including the UPLB College of Development Communication, Ateneo de Manila University and its Communication Department, the University of Santo Tomas, St. Scholastica's College and its Mass Communication Department, De La Salle University, and the UP Diliman College of Mass Communication released statements supporting the franchise renewal of ABS-CBN.<sup>[193]</sup>

The network's shutdown is noted to have placed the job security of 11,000 ABS-CBN employees in jeopardy during the COVID-19 pandemic, though the company assured them stable salary, and complete health and financial benefits for the next 2 months following the shutdown.<sup>[619]</sup> In response, the government may give a 2-month aid to the employees of ABS-CBN.<sup>[194]</sup>

GMA Network's shares increased by 24% as the Philippine Stock Exchange voluntarily suspends ABS-CBN's trading. However, investors remained cautious on GMA's stock rally due to the effects of the shutdown on business confidence.<sup>[195][196]</sup>

President Duterte has denied involvement with the network's shutdown,<sup>[197]</sup> despite earlier assertions that he will oppose franchise renewal.<sup>[15]</sup> His spokesman, Harry Roque, also thanked the network for its assistance to the country during the COVID-19 pandemic.<sup>[102][198]</sup> According to Roque, the president cannot mark the bill renewing ABS-CBN's franchise as urgent because it involves private interest, and that the president will be neutral to the renewal.<sup>[199]</sup>

On May 5, 2020, GMA's primetime news program 24 Oras interviewed the Federation of International Cable TV and Telecommunications Association of the Philippines (FICTAP) President Estrellita Juliano Tamano, who claimed that ABS-CBN violated their 1995 legislative broadcast by airing six channels. She argued that ABS-CBN should be instead broadcasting in one channel only and instead file for a new franchise for every channel they broadcast. <sup>[200][201]</sup>

On May 7, 2020, Philippine Cable and Telecommunications Association Inc (PCTA) President Ronaldo Manlapig argued that there is no need to file for a separate franchise for each channel as ABS-CBN is using digital transmission through their frequency, hence the multiple channels. <sup>[202][203]</sup>

The criticism <sup>[by whom?]</sup> behind ABS-CBN's shutdown mainly <sup>[weasel words]</sup> revolves around the NTC, for lack of fairness on the agency's cease and desist order on the network, and Congress – especially the lower house – for inaction to pass the franchise renewal bill. <sup>[204][205]</sup>

ABS-CBN's shutdown received international attention as news websites, magazines, newspapers and broadcasters including The New York Times,<sup>[9]</sup> The Washington Post,<sup>[6]</sup> Variety,<sup>[206]</sup> BBC News,<sup>[14]</sup> CBS News,<sup>[207]</sup> Time,<sup>[8]</sup> Al Jazeera,<sup>[130]</sup> The Guardian,<sup>[208]</sup> the Associated Press,<sup>[209]</sup> ABC News,<sup>[210]</sup> NHK,<sup>[211][212]</sup> KBS,<sup>[213]</sup> Yonhap News Agency,<sup>[214]</sup> the Financial Times,<sup>[215]</sup> and The Straits Times<sup>[216]</sup> published stories on the network's shutdown. <sup>[217]</sup>

The discontinuance of ABS-CBN's terrestrial broadcast operations created difficulties during the onslaught of Typhoon Vongfong, locally named "Ambo", when authorities and residents of some distant provinces, including Aurora, Quezon, and Sorsogon, reported being unable to get updated information about the typhoon from other sources, because ABS-CBN was the only national television station whose signal could reach them, and internet data was hard to get in their area. <sup>[218][219]</sup>

On June 4, 2020, it was announced that Kapamilya Channel will air programs from ABS-CBN such as Ang Probinsyano and ASAP Natin 'To beginning June 13, 2020 on cable and satellite TV providers nationwide. <sup>[220]</sup>

After the committee vote

Some members of the Congress expressed dismay over the decision, including Cagayan de Oro Rep. Rufus Rodriguez who called the denial "defying evidence". <sup>[221]</sup> Progressive and sectoral groups in the Philippines such as Akbayan, Kilusang Magbubukid ng Pilipinas and Pamalakaya also slammed the body for the vote. <sup>[222]</sup> However, on July 13, Speaker Alan Peter Cayetano stood by the decision to deny the network its franchise.

Supporters conducting a nightly noise barrage in front of the ABS-CBN headquarters, with ABS-CBN artist Angel Locsin speaking in front

Since July 11, supporters organized nightly noise barrages in front of the ABS-CBN studios in Quezon City in opposition of the verdict. Other similarly-styled demonstrations were held in front of the respective ABS-CBN stations in Davao City, Bacolod City and Naga City.<sup>[223][224]</sup> On July 26, demonstrations in Cagayan de Oro City were marred after three funeral wreaths containing ribbons glorifying the New People's Army were left by yet to be identified individuals in front of the ABS-CBN station in the city.
